

GUIDE FOR A GOOD CONFESSION

The basic requirement for a good Confession is to have the intention of returning to God like the Prodigal Son, and acknowledging our sins with true sorrow before his representative, the priest.

BEFORE CONFESSION

Be truly sorry for your sins. The essential act of Penance, on the part of the sinner, is contrition, a clear and decisive rejection of the sin committed together with a resolution not to commit it again, out of love one has for God. Understood in this way, contrition is, therefore, the beginning and the heart of conversion which brings the person back to God like the Prodigal Son returning to his father, and which has in the Sacrament of Penance its visible sign. The resolution to avoid committing these sins in the future (amendment) is a sure sign that your sorrow is genuine and authentic. This does not mean that one will never sin again. A resolution to try to avoid the near occasions of sin suffices for true repentance. God's grace in cooperation with the intention to rectify your life will give you the strength to resist and overcome temptation in the future.

If you have any questions you can ask the priest. Then add: I am sorry for these and all the sins of my past life that I don't remember. The priest will assign you some penance and give you some advice to help you to be a better Christian. Listen to the words and be willing to do the penance as soon as possible. The penance will diminish the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven.

ACT OF CONTRITION

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Or:

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you, whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. My Savior Jesus Christ, you suffered and died for me, have mercy. Amen.

Listen to the words of absolution attentively. Make the sign of the Cross and at the end answer: Amen.

AFTER CONFESSION

- Give thanks to God for having forgiven you once again.
- Promptly and devoutly fulfill the penance given by the priest. Although you may receive Holy Communion even before performing your penance, it is advisable to do it as soon as possible.
- If you recall some serious sin that you forgot to tell, rest assured that it has been forgiven with the others, but be sure to include it in your next Confession.
- Lead the life of a good, holy and joyful Christian Catholic.

To those who have been far away from the sacrament of Reconciliation and forgiving love, I make this appeal: Come back to this source of grace; do not be afraid! Christ himself is waiting for you. He will heal you, and you will be at peace with God!
